Capability Summary

Exceeds Expectations. Innovative. Tailored Designs.

Who We Are

Spencer Cole, LLC: specializes in product development. Our services span the product development lifecycle. Our experience has been primarily tied to the Federal Sector (Department of Defense) with exposure in electro-optical sensor suites, avionic subsystem design, commercial emergency advisory systems, wafer fabrication tools, and printed circuit board manufacturing.

What We Do

Whether it is working with our clients up-front to define and establish the project plan or mid-development, we will work with you to define project scope, cost constraints, time management, identify potential risks, and all conforming processes inclusive of quality assurance measures.
